LIKE TO WHILE AWAY some time in an informal atmosphere? Try JUNE'S SHOWBOAT, 1508 Cabrillo Ave.

Norman Guttman presides in this friendly down-to-earth spot where you don't remain a stranger very long.

Shufftboard and pool provide recreation. Cold beer, hot sandwiches satisfy the appetite.

For an informal, casual good time it's June's Showboat.

SO GRATIFIED BY YOUR enthusiastic response to their Breakfast Special are Dave and Laura Zorger of the TOWER DRIVE-IN, 17420 S. Western Ave., that they are inviting you to dine with them at special prices the rest of the day, too.

Daily specials include lunch for 90 cents and dinner for $1.25. Who said the cost of living is going up?

Oh yes, the Breakfast Special is still on, also. Only 70 cents will start you out right for a good day.

WE APOLOGIZE TO Bub Thomas of the ROARING 20's, 166th and Crenshaw, for labeling him as "Bud" in a caption in our last week's edition.

But, whether it be Bub or Bud, Charles David Thomas has a stage personality (and a hat) that will fit any characterization.

Among the most versatile performers we have ever seen, Bub is not only talented in acting. He is an artist that can draw a striking caricature in a couple of minutes, or do a serious religious painting in a couple of hours.

So, though we apologize for our mistake, it probably doesn't matter as "Bub" by any other name can play the part.

Cast Announced For Comedy at Chapel Theatre

Thelma Ledwidge of Torrance, director of the coming production to open in September, "The Man In The Dog Suit," by Albert Beich and William H. Wright, from a novel by Edwin Corle, announces a partial list of the cast:

John Luger of Manhattan Beach as Oliver; Alma Nelson of Palos Verdes as Martha; Bob Lohbauer of Inglewood as Tony; Sally Conrad of Torrance as Mrs. Stoddard; Helen Borst of Torrance as Letty; and Glen Hoefner of Torrance as Stewart.

Luger who has appeared in many movies and TV shows will star in the new television show "Empire." This is a western series and will replace "Wagon Train."

"Man In The Dog Suit" is a fast-moving comedy with many comical situations involving a man who, when he dons a dog suit costume for a party, becomes completely uninhibited and his inner-self comes out in hilarious situations.

This will mark the end of the first season in Chapel Theatre's new location in Torrance.

Reservations are being taken in advance for all performances of this new presentation and may be obtained by calling Box Office, FR 2-9636.

Torrance Couple Dines Before Airplane Trip

Dining recently at the Pen and Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach before enplaning to Chicago were Mr. and Mrs. William F. Russell of Hollywood Riviera.

MARINELAND—"You haven't been kissed until you've been kissed by a sea lion," was the remark of pretty Nancy Clark, 18, after visiting Marineland and meeting the stars of the shows in person. Miss Clark is being given a salt water smooch by romantic, dashing Cy the sea lion, who performs daily in Sea Arena shows at the oceanarium.

"MAN IN THE DOG SUIT" coming to Chapel Theatre in September. John Luger of Manhattan Beach and Alma Nelson of Palos Verdes have been selected to portray Oliver and Martha in this fast-moving comedy.
